Defendants.

PLAINTIFF’S REPLY TO DEFENDANTS’ RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF’S
MOTION TO RELEASE SBI REPORT NO. 2021-01180

Comes Now Lillie Brown Clark, as the Administrator for the Estate of Andrew Brown, Jr., through her undersigned counsel, files this Reply to Defendants’ Response to Plaintiff’s Motion to Release SBI Report No. 2021-01180. The Plaintiff shows the Court the following:

ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITY

First and foremost, the Plaintiff has no opposition to the Defendants’ proposed protective order. With the exception that the Defendants wish to add language to paragraph 6 of the Plaintiff’s proposed order, that comments to the news media about the contents of the SBI report are not for “prosecuting or defending the action.” This Court should recognize the Defendants’ attempt to add the above language in a protective order, as an overreaching effort to stifle, hinder and block public access to this case during litigation and to prevent the Plaintiff, through her counsel, to limit actions permissible under Rule 3.6 of North Carolina Rule of Professional Conduct, such as the ability speak to the media concerning (1) the claim, offense or defense involved and, except when prohibited by law, the identity of the persons involved; (2) the information contained in a public record; (3) that an investigation of a matter is in progress; (4) the scheduling or result of any step in litigation; (5) a request for assistance in obtaining evidence and information necessary thereto. Essentially, the Defendants want this Court to issue a “gag order” that is inconsistent with actions permissible under Rule 3.6 of North Carolina Rule of Professional Conduct.

A. Public Interest

This case is of great public interest and impacts the lives of so many people in our nation. The killings of unarmed black man at the hands of law enforcement, has been a spreading stain in this county for a very longtime. We reiterate what the Fourth Circuit held in Estate of Jones v. City of Martinsburg concerning the killings of unarmed black men at the hands of law enforcement in our county,

Wayne Jones was killed just over one year before the Ferguson, Missouri shooting of Michael Brown would once again draw national scrutiny to police shootings of black people in the United States. Seven years later, we are asked to decide whether it was clearly established that five officers could not shoot a man 22 times as he lay motionless on the ground. Although we recognize that our police officers are often asked to make split-second decisions, we expect them to do so with respect for the dignity and worth of black lives. Before the ink dried on this opinion, the FBI opened an investigation into yet another death of a black man at the hands of police, this time George Floyd in Minneapolis. This has to stop.

Estate of Jones v. City of Martinsburg, 961 F.3d 661, 673 (4th Cir. 2020).

The Fourth Circuit, held in In re Murphy-Brown, LLC,

This case is about their lives and their livelihoods. Whatever differences the parties and their supporters have, they possess in common a passionate First Amendment interest in debating their futures. It seems very wrong that a court would take that from them.

907 F.3d 788, 802 (4th Cir. 2018).

It is undisputed, that the killing of Andrew Brown, Jr. on April 21, 2021, has acquired national and international interest and attention. In fact, the killing of Andrew Brown has its own Wikipedia page.¹ Similar to In re Murphy-Brown, LLC, this case is also about the lives and the livelihoods of so many in our nation. This case has added to the national debate regarding an unarmed black man being killed at the hands of law enforcement in our county. Even on today the national headlines are inundated with hate crime convictions of three men who killed Ahmaud Arbery.

² The Defendants' asserts in their response that Plaintiff's attorneys want to publicly

² <https://www.usatoday.com/story/news/nation/2022/02/22/ahmaud-arbery-killers-hate-crime-conviction-what-means-race-justice/6892124001/?gnt-cfr=1>

comment on the contents of the SBI report and/or videos contained therein once they obtain them. However, the Defendants' assertions grossly misguided by their own speculation. As stated above, Plaintiff through her counsel, are permitted to speak to the media about matters that are permissible under Rule 3.6 of North Carolina Rule of Professional Conduct. Although, Defendants do not specifically say they are seeking a gag order in their response, it's very clear that a gag order is what Defendants desire by attempting to add the above language in a protective order to stop Plaintiff's counsel from making comments about evidence within the SBI report once that evidence become part of the public record. Notably, almost all the evidence in this case is within the SBI report.

B. Likelihood of Amending Complaint

Further, the Defendants stated that they are baffled that the Plaintiff would have to amend her complaint after obtaining the SBI report. The root of the Defendants' bafflement is nonsensical, considering the Plaintiff only had limited access to the SBI report prior to amending her complaint. Further, all litigants reserve the right to amend pleadings once additional information is received during discovery that will either strengthen existing claims, support new claims or defenses. Here, Plaintiff intends on amending her allegations and possibly adding defendants once she has unfettered access to the SBI report. Pursuant to Rule 3.6 of North Carolina Rule of Professional Conduct, the parties are permitted to address the media or public of those new allegation, claims, defense, and defendants, because said information would be contained in a public record. As previously stated, the Defendants proposed language to add to paragraph 6 of the Plaintiff's proposed order is tantamount to a gag order that is inconsistent with Rule 3.6 of North Carolina Rule of Professional Conduct and would prevent parties from addressing the public and media on matters that are within the public record. Such order would be in contravention of Rule 3.6 of North Carolina Rule of Professional Conduct and the Fourth Circuit holding in Estate of Jones v. City of Martinsburg.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons and authorities cited herein, Plaintiff respectfully request that the Court deny Defendants' request to add "that comments to the news media about the contents of the SBI report are not for "prosecuting or defending the action"", in any protective order that the parties and the SBI enters into for the release of the SBI report.

Respectfully submitted this 24th day of February 2022
